

Dr. Tania Pannu is a physician based in Calgary, Alberta, specializing in General Internal Medicine with a focused expertise in Adult Thrombosis Medicine. She pursued her Doctor of Medicine degree at the University of Alberta before completing her Internal Medicine Residency and General Internal Medicine Fellowship at the University of Calgary. In August 2022, Dr. Pannu earned the distinction of becoming a Diplomate of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada with an Area of Focused Competence in Adult Thrombosis Medicine.

Currently, Dr. Pannu currently serves as the Medical Director of the Anticoagulation Management Services and is actively involved in several prominent roles within the thrombosis community.

In addition to her clinical responsibilities, Dr. Pannu is passionate about community service. Currently a volunteer with the Punjabi Community Health Services, she continues to work toward health advocacy in South Asian population. Additionally, she fulfills her role as an academic advisor, nurturing and mentoring residents.

Outside the realm of medicine, Dr. Pannu maintains a vibrant connection to the arts. As a trained Bollywood and Bhangra dancer, she has performed and taught dance for over two decades, fostering a deep appreciation for cultural expression and community engagement. Fluent in Punjabi and Hindi, Dr. Pannu effectively connects with a diverse range of patients and colleagues, enriching her practice with a broad cultural perspective.